

Vented Silicone Stopper Disassembly and Cleaning Instructions

If your Vented Silicone Stopper gets dirty, follow these instructions below to disassemble and clean. Stoppers can be soaked in any sanitizing cleanser solution to clean.

Lift lid and pull with thumb to separate lid from base of bung

Press flared base of stem into hole at angle, press stem into hole

On a solid surface with both thumbs firmly press lid of bung into the base until it snaps into place